

Barking Mad originally launched in May 2000. We quickly expanded across the UK and overseas with owner operated branches. Our success is based upon our unrivalled ability to meet the needs of our customers and their dogs, by providing complete peace of mind.

"Thank heaven for Barking Mad! We were somewhat concerned at finding a suitable sitter for Sam who is now 11 yrs old and always cared for by the family. We were utterly delighted at the service provided by Kerry who came to our rescue at the eleventh hour. Sam was obviously well cared for - we feel he enjoyed his holiday very much."

Sian & Alastair McCrindle, Peterborough

"Our dogs have holidayed with Barking Mad several times and the level of service each time is fantastic. We never worry and the dogs come back happy and have had a great time."

L Blake, Glasgow

Every day, everybody says "thank you" and we don't think life can get any better than that!

The alternative to kennels

Because dogs deserve a holiday too

Barking Mad... Where happy hounds holiday

When you book a Barking Mad holiday, you can be confident your dogs are going to have as good a time as you - although secretly we hope it's even better!

Our friendly, professional home from home pet care service has been specifically designed for dog owners who share our belief that their furry friends are part of the family.

We love dogs of all shapes and sizes, pedigree, Heinz 57, rescue and special needs. Age isn't a problem either and we're happy to host all dogs from puppies to pensioners, as long as they are friendly we'll get along just fine.

It's really important for us to get to know you and your dog, especially in the beginning. We'll come to you and over a cup of tea you can tell us all about your day to day routines for feeding and exercising so we can replicate this for your dog whilst on holiday. We'll chat about likes (usually a lot), dislikes (usually the postman) and any healthcare requirements.

Selecting the right family is very important and your input into this process is invaluable. You will want to know exactly where your dog is going, so during our time together you will see all of our dog-loving families. They are just like you and me, and guaranteed to meet our extremely high pet sitting standards. Together we'll make the right choice, and you can decide whether your best friend stays in a home with or without a resident dog, depending upon individual needs.

Leave it to the experts – we take care of everything

Our service includes door-to-door, chauffeur driven transport for your dog. Being collected from home is far less stressful, and completely overcomes any anxiety caused when dogs are left behind by their owners. Delivery back home is arranged at a time to suit you.

We'll organise a short stay in advance of your main booking so that when you're away you can relax knowing your dog is happy and contented.

Barking Mad is able to provide all the benefits of dog ownership but without the full time emotional and financial commitments attached to owning a dog of your own.

Whatever your circumstances, if you're a dog lover, interested in providing a loving home, we really would like to hear from you.

Our fantastic host families are the heart of our business and we simply couldn't do what we do without them.

"Barking Mad put a smile back on my face. 'No more dogs', I thought, when our lovely Dachshund, Sally, sadly died, but suddenly there was complete silence. I'd go shopping, just to pet every dog I walked past, until I saw a small advertisement, 'seeking hosts for dogs on holiday'. I rang that number, and into my life, came a small army of four-legged friends of all shapes, sizes, colours and personalities, so I need dogs in my life, with their trusting eyes, soft mouths and wagging tails. Barking Mad, you gave me back my smile, thank you!"
